

Student Achievements

Achievement in Poster Presentation at Sigma University

Our students of ITM Vocational University, FLHAS actively presented in Poster Presentation at the GSBMT & DST and presented their work and showcased innovative ideas held at Sigma University, Vadodara, on 12th April 2025. They performed remarkably well and secured the 4th rank in the competition, bringing recognition and pride to the FLHAS Department and ITM Vocational University. The certificate was awarded for participation in the Poster Presentation at the GSBMT & DST-sponsored symposium on “Current Trends and Opportunities in Biotechnology Sector”.

University Initiative for Community Health and Wellness as Social Achievement

The ITM Vocational University organized a Health Awareness Camp at Sayajibaug, Vadodara, on 23rd March 2025, focusing on blood group testing and diabetes screening. Our students actively participated in the camp, providing diagnostic services to the community with dedication and care. The activity aimed to create awareness about preventive healthcare and early detection of diseases. This initiative highlighted the University's commitment towards societal well-being and community engagement.

Best Poster Presentation Award Achievement – Laboratory Technician Day 2025

On 19th March 2025, a proud moment was witnessed as students of MLT Department received the Best Poster Presentation Award on the occasion of Laboratory Technician Day 2025. The event highlighted the importance of laboratory professionals and their vital role in healthcare. The award recognized the student's creativity, knowledge, and dedication towards the field. This achievement brought pride and recognition to both the student and the department.

OCI Zeiss WOD Intercollege Quiz competition

Student of Optometry, Sejal Premnaryan Buddh secured 2nd place in the OCI Zeiss WOD Intercollege Quiz Competition held on 23rd March 2025. The event brought together optometry students from various institutes to test their knowledge and clinical acumen. Her achievement highlights her strong academic foundation and competitive spirit, bringing recognition to the institution.

Girls' Badminton Championship

Manya Sharma from the Department of Microbiology showcased exceptional talent and determination by winning the Girls' Badminton Championship in the Litmus 2025 event. Her victory highlights not only her sporting spirit but also brings pride to the department. She serves as an inspiration for her peers to pursue excellence both in academics and extracurricular activities.

Current Trends and Opportunitites in Biotechnology Sectorat

Gulshan Mishara from the Department of Medical Laboratory Technology actively participated in one day symposium on Current Trends and Opportunitites in Biotechnology Sectorat Sigma University on 12/04/25 , demonstrating keen interest and dedication towards academic growth. His involvement reflects not only his enthusiasm for learning but also adds value to the department. He stands as an example for his peers to engage wholeheartedly in such opportunities that enhance both knowledge and personal development.

Sci-toon competition

Swara Vyas from the Department of Medical Laboratory Technology showcased exceptional talent and determination by securing the 1st rank in Sci-toon competition held which has organised by Medical laboratory Technology on the them of Lab Saves Lives on 19/03/25. Her remarkable achievement highlights not only her academic excellence but also brings pride to the department. She serves as an inspiration for her peers to strive for success and pursue excellence in both academics and extracurricular activities.

Magic Behind Science competition

Gulshan Mishara, Khyati Mistry, and Grishma Panday from the Department of Medical Laboratory Technology participated in the Magic Behind Science competition on National Science day and secured the First Runner-up position. Their accomplishment reflects their dedication and scientific aptitude while also bringing pride to the department. This achievement stands as an encouragement for their peers to actively engage in academic and co-curricular endeavors.

SCI-FIESTA

Khyati Mistri from the Department of Medical Laboratory Technology demonstrated remarkable enthusiasm and dedication by participating in the Magnet Fight Competition in SCI-FIESTA event during the Litmus 2025, where she secured the First position. Her achievement reflects her determination and skill, bringing pride to the department and motivating fellow students to strive for excellence in both academics and extracurricular pursuits.

